2014 Congressional Art Competition

Dear Teacher,

Each spring, a nation-wide high school art competition is sponsored by the Members of the U.S. House of Representatives. The Congressional Art Competition began in 1982 and is a unique opportunity to showcase the artistic talents of high school students around the nation and within the 2nd Congressional District. Since its inception, over 650,000 high school students have been involved with this nationwide competition. The Congressional Art Competition is an opportunity to recognize and encourage artistic talent in the nation, as well as in each Congressional District.

The Congressional Art Competition, sponsored by Congressman McGovern, is open to all high school students attending a high school located in the 2nd Congressional District of Massachusetts. The piece that is judged the overall winner of our District's competition will be displayed for one year in the U.S. Capitol. The exhibit in Washington will also include artwork from other competition winners nationwide. Two roundtrip airline tickets are provided to the winner and a guest to attend the national reception in Washington, D.C. Category prize winners' artwork may be requested to be displayed in my district offices for one year.

Artwork must be dropped off at one of my district offices by 4:30 pm, Friday, April 4.
