113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. _____

To promote access for United States officials, journalists, and other citizens to Tibetan areas of the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. MCGOVERN introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To promote access for United States officials, journalists, and other citizens to Tibetan areas of the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Reciprocal Access to 5 Tibet Act of 2014".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The Chinese Government does not grant
2 United States officials, journalists, and other citi-
3 zens access to the People’s Republic of China on a
4 reciprocal basis to the access the United States Gov-
5 ernment grants Chinese officials, journalists, and 6 citizens.

7 (2) The Chinese Government imposes greater
8 restrictions on travel to Tibetan areas than to other 9 areas of the People’s Republic of China.

10 (3) Officials of the People’s Republic of China
11 have stated that Tibet is open to foreign visitors.

12 (4) The Chinese Government is promoting tour-
13 ism in Tibetan areas, and has announced plans to 14 make tourism a “pillar industry” for the region.

15 (5) The Chinese Government requires for-
16 eigners to obtain permission from the Tibet Foreign 17 and Overseas Affairs Office or from the Tibet Tour-
18 ism Bureau to enter the Tibet Autonomous Region, 19 a restriction that is not imposed on travel to any 20 other provincial-level jurisdiction in the People’s Re-
21 public of China.

22 (6) The Department of State reports that the 23 Tibet Foreign and Overseas Affairs Office denied
24 more than 10 requests for United States diplomatic 25 access to the Tibet Autonomous Region between

1 May 2011 and December 2012, and that when such 2 requests are granted, diplomatic personnel are close-
3 ly supervised and given few opportunities to meet
4 local residents not approved by authorities.

5 (7) The Chinese Government restricted United 6 States consular access after an October 28, 2013,
7 bus crash in the Tibet Autonomous Region, in which 8 at least two Americans died and more than a dozen
9 others, all from Walnut, California, were injured.

10 (8) The Chinese Government has failed to re-
11 spond positively to the United States Government's 12 request to open a consulate in Lhasa, Tibet Autono-
13 mous Region.

14 (9) The Department of State reports that the 15 Chinese government regularly denies requests by 16 American diplomats, foreign journalists, and observ-
17 ers to visit Tibetan areas, and that those permitted
18 to visit are subject to "highly structured, govern-
19 ment-organized tours" that limit independent, objec-
20 tive reporting.

21 (10) The Department of State reports that for-22 eign diplomats who were permitted to travel in Ti-
23 betan areas outside the Tibet Autonomous Region 24 were "repeatedly approached by local police and

1 sometimes forced to leave without reasonable expla-
2 nation”.

3 (11) The Department of State reports that per-4 mission is not always granted to foreign tourists,
5 and that when granted, Lhasa, Rikaze (Shigatse), 6 and Shannan (Lhoka) are usually the only places in 7 the Tibet Autonomous Region open to foreigners.

8 (12) Foreign visitors also face restrictions in 9 their ability to travel freely in Tibetan areas outside
10 the Tibet Autonomous Region.

11 (13) Foreign visitors to Tibetan areas are ex-
12 plicitly limited to tours that are tightly managed by 13 authorities.

14 (14) Restrictions on journalists’ access to Ti-
15 betan areas conflict with government regulations,
16 adopted in 2008, lifting requirements that foreign 17 journalists get permission of local authorities to 18 travel in the country and interview Chinese citizens.

19 (15) The United States Government generally
20 allows journalists and other citizens of the People’s 21 Republic of China to travel freely within the United 22 States. The United States Government requires
23 Chinese diplomats to notify the Department of State 24 of their travel plans, and in certain situations, the 25 United States Government requires Chinese dip-

1 lomats to obtain approval from the Department of 2 State before travel. However, where approval is re-
3 quired, it is almost always granted expeditiously.

4 (16) The United States regularly grants visas
5 to Chinese officials, scholars, and others who travel
6 to the United States to discuss, promote and display
7 the Chinese Government's perspective on the situa-
8 tion in Tibetan areas, even as the Chinese Govern-
9 ment restricts the ability of United States citizens to 10 travel to Tibetan areas to gain their own perspective.

11 (17) Chinese diplomats based in the United 12 States generally avail themselves of the freedom to 13 travel to United States cities and lobby city councils,
14 mayors, and governors to refrain from passing reso-
15 lutions, issuing proclamations, or making statements
16 of concern on Tibet.

17 (18) The Chinese Government characterizes
18 statements made by United States officials about the 19 situation in Tibetan areas as inappropriate inter-
20 ference in the internal affairs of China.

12 quirement has been replaced by a regulation that 13 has the same effect of requiring foreign travelers to

7 (c) WAIVER FOR NATIONAL INTERESTS.—

8 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State may 9 waive the application of subsection (a) or (b) in the 14 the United Nations and the United States of 15 America regarding the Headquarters of the 16 United Nations, signed June 26, 1947, and en-

5 SEC. 6. VISA POLICY.

6 It is the sense of Congress that—

7 (1) reciprocity forms the basis of diplomatic law
8 and the practice of mutual exchanges between coun-9 tries;

10 (2) a country should give equivalent consular
11 access to the nationals of another country in a recip-12 rocal manner to the consular access granted by such 13 other country to its own citizens; and

14 (3) the Secretary of State, when granting dip-
15 lomats from the People's Republic of China access
16 to parts of the United States, should take into ac-17 count the extent to which the Government of the 18 People's Republic of China grants United States dip-19 lomats access to parts of the People's Republic of 20 China, including the level of access afforded to such 21 diplomats to Tibetan areas.
